

Academic Writing Center

A writing and language support service available to the whole of Université Paris-Saclay

A person is sitting at a desk in a bright, modern office. They are wearing a blue and white plaid shirt. Their right hand is holding a black pen and writing in a spiral-bound notebook. In the background, their left hand is on a laptop keyboard. To the right, a tablet displays a dashboard with various charts and graphs. The scene is overlaid with a large teal circle containing white text.

Better texts,
bolder writers,
bigger impact.

Université Paris-Saclay is now among the world-class institutions that have set up Writing Centers
